Dear Sir/Madam

APPLICATION FOR DUTY EXEMPTION OF ETHYL ALCOHOL (DEEA)

We refer to your application received on 29 Mar 2016.

2 Approval is granted for your institution to use up to 300 litres of duty-exempted ethyl alcohol (DEEA) per year for research and development (R&D) purposes. The approval is subject to the following conditions:

- a. The DEEA is to be used solely for R&D purposes conducted within the premises of Cambridge Centre for Advanced Research and Research and Education in Singapore Ltd and shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of;
- b. The DEEA is to be kept in a secure storage facility;
- c. A Customs Duty Exemption/GST Payment Permit is required to be declared for each consignment of DEEA imported or purchased locally from approved sources (e.g. Licensed Warehouse);
- d. Cambridge Centre for Advanced Research and Research and Education in Singapore Ltd is required to maintain records of quantities of DEEA imported or purchased locally. These records are to be made available for inspection by Singapore Customs;

- e. Cambridge Centre for Advanced Research and Research and Education in Singapore Ltd shall pay excise duty on any quantity of DEEA not satisfactorily accounted for; and
- f. Singapore Customs may conduct audits on the DEEA and the relevant records at your premises.

Yours sincerely
